

Digital Economy, Technology and Inequalities

Summer School Tentative Program

July 5-8, 2021

Universitat de València

July, 5

9.30. Registration & Opening

10.00. The Sharing Economy

- Andrés Boix, U. València.
- Enguerrand Marique, UCLouvain.
- Ana María De la Encarnación, U. València.

13.30. Lunch

July, 6

9.30. Regulating New Technological Developments

- Esther Machancoses, U. València.
- Francesco Boldrin, U. Bologna.

11:45. Automated Decision-Making and Inequalities

- Alba Soriano, U. València.
- Raphaële Xenidis, U. of Edinburgh & Copenhaguen.

13.30. Lunch

July, 7

9.30. Gig Economy, Precariousness and Job Insecurity

- Adrián Todolí, U. València.
- Martin Gruber-Risak, U. Vienna.

11.45. Sharing Transportation Markets

- Gabriel Doménech, U. València.
- Guido Smorto, U. Palermo.

13.30. Lunch

July, 8

9.30. Digital Reputation, Competition Issues and Algorithmic Contracting

- Carmen Rodilla, U. València.
- Mireia Artigot, U. Pompeu Fabra.

11.45. Sharing Economy: Social Effects and Data Protection

- Pau Rausell, U. València.
- Lorenzo Cotino, U. València.

13.30. Closing session

Call for papers

The organizing committee invites those interested in submitting a paper (in English) to send either a copy of the final paper or an outline (2 pages) to alba.soriano@uv.es. The 8 best papers will be presented at the Summer School and the travel and accommodation expenses of their authors will be covered by the organization up to 400 euros per paper. Papers may also be presented through videoconference.

Submission Deadline: June 10, 2021

Confirmation of selected papers: June 15, 2021

The 4 best papers will be published (either in Spanish or English) in the Revista General de Derecho de los Sectores Regulados (lustel).

Registration & Attendance

Registration form: <https://forms.gle/CDLmcPHjnShZPMGVA>

The Summer School may be followed either online or on-site

For further information, see <https://shine.blogs.uv.es/network-events/> or please contact alba.soriano@uv.es

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union